from The Adventures of Toad

Ilona Sekacz

When Toad came home! There was pa-nic in the par-lour and how-ling in the hall There was cry-ing in the cow-shed and shri-king in the stall When the Toad came home! When Toad came home There was mash-ing in of win-dows and crash-ing in of doors There was chivv-y in of wea-sels that faint-ed on the floor when the Toad came home

Bang go the drums the trum-pet-ers are too-ting and the sol-diers are sa-lu-ting the can-non they are shoo-ting and the mo-tor cars are hoo-ting as the he-ro comes Shout hoo-ray and let each one of the crowd try and shout it ve-ry loud in ho-nour of an an-i-mal of whom we're ve-ry proud for it's Toad's great day.
